

SEASONS

(Words & Music by Mike Levy © CLANCYS MUSIC 2001)

Open D Tuning (capo 2)

Intro

D A D G D
I remember summers long, with rivers clear and bright,

G D G A7
Like a painting by John Constable, in a soft and golden light,

A G A A7
Evenings long and full of cheer, twilight slow to fade

G D G D
Faces there from long ago, good friends that I've made

D A D G D
Falling leaves and autumn browns reveal an ending phase,

G D G A7
To life and song and memories and long hot summer days,

A G A A7
Locked in an aging photograph, memories wearing thin,

G D G D
Confusing where we're going with places that we've been.

D A D G D
I recall the winter's cold, with snowdrifts soft and deep,

G D G A7
Hearing children laughing, their happiness complete,

A G A A7
Snow banked up against a wall, north wind's icy chill,

G D G D
Homefire warmth or searing cold, the choice before us still

Intro

Opening

①

②

③ Repeat

D A D G D
At last the cold of winter breaks and life springs up once more

G D G A7
New colours and new harmonies as hope begins to soar

A G A A7
Winding lanes meet city streets, village turns to town

G D G D
Lives made and lost in every place, we reap what we have sown.

D A D G D
I was born in a pleasant land of fields both rich and green,

G D G A7
Where folk of ancient lineage say everyone is free

A G A A7
And the smoke from ancient battlefields is fading from our minds

G D G D
And the present and the past combine, from another place, another time.
