

PLEASANT LAND

(Words & Music by Greg Barnett © CLANCYS MUSIC 2001)

- capo 0

Intro: Em D C Bm Am7 G Cmaj7 B Em Em

Em D C B Em
I was born in a pleasant land of fields rich and green

G Bm C D
Where folk of ancient lineage say everyone is free

Em D C Bm
And the smoke from old battlefields was fading from minds

Em D C B Em
The future was a-beckoning for all hum- an kind

Em D C B Em
But this view of Camelot was destined to fade

G Bm C D
My rose tinted glasses got lost in the shade

Em D C Bm
I saw cracks in the facade, saw veneer peel

Em D C B Em
Unreal expectations that hard hearts could feel

CHORUS

Chorus

G D Bm C Am Bm C B Em
Is there a land that claims to be free where people live in harmony and equa- li - ty

Em D C B Em
Despite wars down the centuries we've hardened with age

G Bm C D
Still fists are thrust in faces contorted with rage

Em D C Bm
Minds have proved weaker than religion or skin

Em D C B Em
Can any land be a pleasant land with such anger with- in CHORUS

Em D C B Em
I've come to a pleasant land of fields wide and brown

G Bm C D
Where folk from all around the world toil the country and town

Em D C Bm
But some have brought old battlefields and refuse to for-give

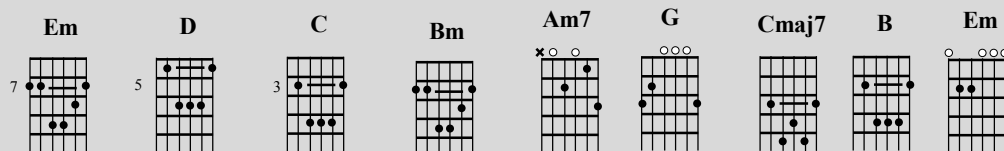

Em D C B Em
And stoke the fires of emnity in the nest where they live

Last Chorus

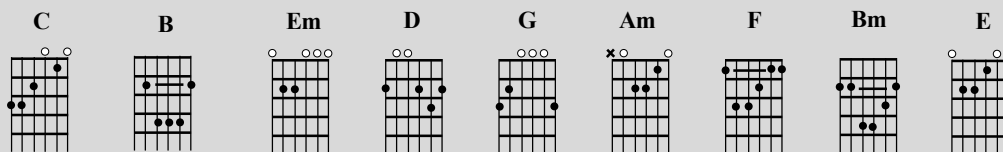

G D Bm C Am Bm C B Am
Is there a land that claims to be free where people live in harmony and equa - li - ty

F Em C B E
where people live in harmony and equa - li - ty
